GREATEST CROWD ATTENDS REVIVAL ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Prayer Service at Conclusion of Meeting is Inspiring Sight.

Mr. William McEwan Sang two Songs.

MR. JACOBY'S BIG MEETING.

A crowd that packed the Auditorium, Tenth street and Broadway, before the services commenced, heard Dr. Torrey last night. Hundreds were turned away, and scores rose for prayers. The after meeting was the biggest demonstration of the revival, which is on its last week. Mr. McEwan sang two beautiful solos last night, his sweet tenor voice, melting the hearts of his listeners.

In the afternoon Mr. Jacoby, who had put in a busy day, speaking at the First Presbyterian Sunday school at 9:30 and at the Broadway Methodist church at 10:45, addressed an immense audience of men at the auditorium. He told his own life story and his rectal greatly moved his audience last night.

Dr. Torrey's subject was "Heroes and Cowards."

He said:

"The fear of man bringeth a snare."—Proverbs xxv. 25.

I have a long text tonight, in fact three texts. The text is the best part of the sermon. If a sermon is better than the text it is a poor sermon. A good sermon is simply an exposition of the text. You will find the first text in Proverbs xxv. 25: "The fear of man bringeth a snare." Whatever your views about the inspiration of the Bible may be, you know that this verse is true enough, anyhow. How many times we have seen that statement of God's Word fulfilled. How many a man and woman in Paducah tonight has been snared by the fear of man, and ruined for time and eternity. For example, how many a young man has come to Paducah a pure, innocent, upright, temperate young fellow, and intended to lead a sober, honest, upright life in this great city. He knew something about the perils of drink, and was wise enough not to touch it; and he comes to Paducah intending to be what every man and woman ought to be a total abstainer. One night this young man goes out to dinner, and the gentleman at the head of the table urges him to take a glass of wine. But this young man refuses; he says, "I never drink." The gentleman laughs at him, the other people at the table chat him, some say that he is insulting the host or hosts by not drinking to their health, and the fear of the man brings him into a snare. He takes his first glass of wine, and that leads on to another and another and another, and tonight he is a drunkard on the streets of Paducah because of the fear of man, reputation gone, manhood gone, brain power gone, business capacity gone, everything gone; the fear of man has proved his temporal and eternal ruin. How many a young fellow comes up to this city of Paducah, an honest young man, who has never gambled in his life. He plays an occasional friendly game of cards; but one night, after work, he is out in the company of a few friends, and they are playing cards as usual, and some one of the group suggests that they should put up a little stake, on a small amount, just to make the game interesting. The young man hesitates, but they say, "You don't need to gamble, it is only three pence or sixpence either way; we are not going to play for high stakes." He says, "I never gamble; I believe it is dishonest." But they laugh at him, and chaff him, and tell him he should go along to Sunday school; and he cannot stand their chaff, and he puts up his first threepenny bit on a game of cards. The passion of the gambler, which is a more consuming passion than that of strong drink and more ruinous, takes possession of him; he robs his employer, and today he is in prison, because the fear of man led him to gamble, and ruined him utterly.

London, Oct. 24.—Following a conference with the prison authorities Chief Justice Alberstone, today definitely claimed Tuesday, November 8, as the date for hanging Dr. Crippen, convicted Saturday of the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore. Dr. Crippen has recovered composure and still protests his innocence. His attorneys are ready to appeal the verdict. The court criminal appeal is not expected to interfere with a lower court's decision.

MRS. AGNES GRIMES

MES AT FULTON AT 11:30 SUNDAY NIGHT.

Mrs. Margaret Murray, Her Sister-in-Law, Receives the News.

Mrs. Margaret Murray, 321 Monroe street, received word last night of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Agnes Boyd Grimes, at the home of her son, Mr. Lloyd Grimes, in Fulton, at 11:30 o'clock Sunday night. Mrs. Grimes had been an invalid for sometime, but it was not known that her condition was critical and the news of her death was a shock to relatives here.

Mrs. Grimes was one of the older citizens of Paducah and had lived here all of her life until a few years ago, when she went to Fulton to reside with her son, who is traveling engineer for the Tennessee division of the Illinois Central railroad. She was a daughter of the late Major Alfred Boyd, brother of the Hon. Linn Boyd, a prominent Mexican war and Confederate veteran. She was the widow of the late James T. Grimes, a well-known Paducah citizen.

Floyd Mayberry Dismissed.

Floyd Mayberry, colored, of 1013 Washington street, who was arrested at 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning by Patrolman Vick, suspected of cutting Lena Jackson, colored, was dismissed in police court this morning and recognized to appear at the trial this week. Lena was cut Saturday night and the police are looking for the cuttist.

RED MEN

PREPARING FOR VISIT FROM BIG CHIEF.

Great Sachem Northcutt, of Covington, Ky., Comes Friday Night.

Preparations are being made by the Paducah tribe of Red Men for the reception of Great Sachem, Homer J. Northcutt, of Covington, Ky., Friday night at the hall. It will be the first visit of the great sachem of Kentucky for several years and he will be given a big reception. A large class of candidates will be given the first three degrees and after the team work an elaborate banquet will be spread in honor of Mr. Northcutt. No one is on the program for addresses but there will be several impromptu speeches.

The forty-fifth semi-annual meeting of the Southwestern Medical Association will be held in Bardwell tomorrow. An excellent program has been arranged for the day, and a large attendance of physicians and surgeons from over western Kentucky is expected. Many Paducah physicians will attend. They will leave tomorrow morning at 6:30 o'clock and will return tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Small boys anxious to see the fire department run are believed to have set fire to the barn of John Wels, 1435 South Ninth street, Saturday afternoon. Fortunately the firemen made the run in quick time and extinguished the blaze before it gained headway.

Mrs. Otto Hamilton is ill at her home on Salem avenue.

What Leavitt Said

We, the undersigned, hereby swear that W. H. Leavitt, an artist, who recently exhibited his picture here, did make the statement in the editorial room of the Paducah Evening Sun Saturday, October 22, 1910, about 1 p.m., that an Eastern newspaper had wired him as the result of a query from the Paducah News Bureau for the facts about the alleged attempt by a fanatic to destroy his painting with a knife. Mr. Leavitt stated he answered, "It is an absolute falsehood."

Letters Sent Through Mail to Farmers in Crittenden and Livingston.

Ordering Them to Pool Their 1910 Crops.

THEY SING LETTERS U. B. N. G.

"By our blood: You are hereby notified to pool your 1910 crop of tobacco. U. B. N. G."

These typewritten notices have been sent through the mails to numerous tobacco growers, who are a bit uncertain, in the night rider district.

They have been distributed generally as there is feeling and sentiment that many tobacco growers do not desire to pool their tobacco crops this year. The letters signed are interpreted to mean "United Brothers of Night Guards." These letters have been received by many tobacco growers in the vicinity of Dyersburg.

Last week a meeting of tobacco growers was held, and speeches were made by a few leaders, telling the growers that they must pool this year's crop. The meeting was somewhat cooled when Major E. B. Bassett entered the meeting, and in a speech told the growers that nobody would be forced to pool their tobacco.

The telegram says: "America II passed over here Tuesday, course due north. It passed West of St. Ignace, Mich., was over Sutton Bay at dark. People talked with the balloonist eight miles north of here, who saw lettering on the balloon, signed E. S. Northrup.

With the America II A. R. Hawley, pilot, and Augustus Post, aid, still unaccounted for, the relative positions of the nine other balloons of the international race which started from here last Monday, was figured by Lieut. Andrew Drew, hydrographic expert of the Aero club, of St. Louis.

Drew gives the distance traveled by the aeronauts unofficially.

Lost in Wilderness.

Montreal, Oct. 24.—It is the opinion of August Blancherts, aid of the balloon Germania, that Allan R. Hawley, pilot, and Augustus Post, aid, of the balloon America II, from whom no word has been received are fighting for their lives through the wilderness of northern Quebec.

Blancherts arrived here from La-Toupe, Que., some distance from the spot where the Germania landed on Wednesday. He and Hugo Von Abercrom had a desperate fight for their lives after coming to earth. They were 32 hours forcing their way through an unbroken forest to the railway lines with crusts of bread for sustenance.

There they met a construction gang who said a big yellow balloon had preceded the Germania over practically the same route by half an hour. This is believed to have been the America II, and is said to have passed over very high.

Searching Party Starts.

New York, Oct. 24.—William Hawley, brother of Allan Hawley, and R. L. Stoddard, an intimate friend, are on their way to Ottawa, Canada, today to organize a relief expedition to search the surrounding wilderness for Hawley and Augustus Post, from the missing balloon, America, No. 2. Rumors from Ottawa that the America landed north of Kiskisink, Quebec, beyond the landing place of the Dusseldorf, have not been confirmed.

Grace Episcopal.

The Rev. Frederick Thompson, of Uniontown, Ky., is addressing the ladies of the Grace Episcopal church congregation this afternoon on "The Needs of the Church in Kentucky." Dr. Thompson is at the head of the school at Uniontown that is doing such a fine work in educating the young ministers of the church.

Dr. Thompson preached at Grace church Sunday morning and evening. He delivered two strong and able sermons. Dr. Thompson is a man whose faith and works have gone hand-in-hand. He was the official at Grace Church in the absence of Dr. Wright.

PROSECUTOR BURKE CHARGES SENATORS WITH BEING GRAFTERS.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 24.—Declaring that State Senator Holtzlaw is a "wolf in sheep's clothing," a grafter and a purveyor, and branding Senator S. C. Pemberton and Representative J. C. Clark as Holtzlaw's accomplices, State's Attorney Burke today opened the Pemberton-Clark bribery trial.

Burke said he would show that Pemberton and Clark voted repeatedly to award the state capital furniture contract to the highest bidder. Secretary of State Rose, the first witness, will take the stand late this afternoon.

Holtzlaw is not coming here of his own will to tell of the furniture contract deal," said Burke. "He is coming because the state has the goods on him."

WALL PAPER TRUST

CANDIDATE DIX DIRECTOR IN CORPORATION.

Judge Landis Said It Was a Conspiracy In Restraint of Trade.

New York, Oct. 24.—Theodore Roosevelt began to unlimber his heavy artillery. In two speeches, one in Manhattan and the other in Brooklyn, he accused John Dix, the Democratic candidate for governor, of being one of the directors in a company which "aided in forming a complete scheme to accomplish the stifling of commerce," against which he quoted the strictures of a judge, now of the United States supreme court, and contrasted his business record with the public record of Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate for governor. From the same platform Bourke Cockran, formerly a Democratic orator, announced that he will this fall vote for the Republican ticket.

"I ask you to compare Harry Stimson, who I hope you will judge as Governor by his record as district attorney," Col. Roosevelt said, "and Mr. Dix, of whom his friends have to say as a public man, he of course, will do the direct opposite to what he did as a private business man. His present backers announce that they are against trusts. Well, Mr. Dix is now director of the Standard Wall-paper company.

"If you will turn to the opinion of the court in the case of the Continental Wall-paper company vs. Voight, reported in the Federal Reporter, 148, page 939, you will find the court record says that the National Wall-paper company, a corporation owning or controlling a large number of wall-paper factories, combined or conspired together with them for the purpose of controlling the wall paper production in this country by suppressing competition among themselves.

"The Standard Wall-paper company was one of the parties to that agreement. Its president, Mr. Julius Jackson was made president of the Continental Wall-paper company, that is, the wall-paper trust. Now this company brought a suit against Voight & company. Judge Lurton, now a member of the United States supreme court, wrote the opinion of the court January 5, 1906, in the course of which he said in speaking of this wall-paper trust:

"This union, embracing substantially all the wall-paper mills in the land, resulted in an unreasonable enhancement of prices."

"And this precisely what we might anticipate. You know Mr. Dix has been speaking of his regret that prices have gone up. He helped to bring them up."

"Now, friends, Mr. Dix has been unfortunate in his partnerships. Although he feels that the tariff should be low, one partner wrote begging that their product should be made higher, and although in his official capacity he is against trust described in such terms by Judge Lurton. And now he has another partner in politics, Murphy, the boss of Tammany Hall."

ROOSEVELT WILL ADVOCATE TAFT'S RE-NOMINATION

Friends of President In New York Are Found to Be Lukewarm.

Because They Fear Roosevelt In 1912.

FAKE STORY FROM INDIANA.

New York, Oct. 24.—Roosevelt here today inferentially denied a charge that he had called Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, of Indiana, a "damned jackass and crook," but it is alleged that the colonel made this remark to Perry S. New, former chairman of the Republican national committee, at the recent Roosevelt reception in Indianapolis.

"There is nothing I can say about this," the colonel said. "It is just the kind of thing to be expected in the closing days of a campaign."

Will Stump Ohio.

Colonel Roosevelt, it was learned, has promised to make several campaign speeches for the Republican candidates in Ohio on his return from Iowa. This strengthens the belief that there is an understanding between President Taft and Roosevelt that the latter will support him for renomination in 1912.

Colonel Roosevelt's friends have hinted here that he now realizes that the radical Republicans of the west must be curbed, that they can not dominate the next Republican national convention or elect their ticket, and that he must cast his influence with the conservative progressives in favor of renominating Taft and re-electing him.

It is apparent that when the former president speaks in Ohio he will take occasion to pay some strong compliments to the president, and that this will bring about a still further kindly feeling between the white house and its former occupant.

In New York thousands of Taft's admirers are working against Stimson because of their feeling that Roosevelt is the man who is to be put out of business. If these men could be convinced that Roosevelt was really for Taft's renomination they might be induced to fall into line for Stimson.

Colonel Roosevelt's aim is to win in New York, not to be discredited there. He is said to have found that it will be impossible for him to do so as matters stand. He is willing to let it be reported that he is for Taft for another term.

Famous Opera Star Coming. Joseph F. Sheehan America's favorite and the greatest tenor ever heard in the English language to bring his all star company to the Kentucky theater for one performance the evening of Thursday November 3rd. The Sheehan English Grand Opera company this year is said to excel all previous efforts. It consists of the pick of the Chicago and Boston companies. Each principal being selected for his or her fitness for the role they will sing and the chorus is the cream of the two big companies. Never before in America has an all star opera company been put before the public and no greater compliment can be said this organization than to say it is on a par with its famous leader.

The Climax.

Edward Locke cast aside all stage conventions, when he wrote the charming comedy of Bohemian life "The Climax" which was the dramatic sensation last season, and which will be seen here for its first appearance at Kentucky on November 16. "The Climax" is a strong story, from which are life and melody. It is not the life of the idealist, but of people we come in contact with in our daily routine of life, with the homely surroundings of the Latin quarter. Each of the characters shows the author's thorough knowledge of the people he has depicted. The piece has all the touches of reality intertwined with delightfully especially written by Jos. Carl Breit.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—The baseball championship of the world belongs to Philadelphia. They clinched the big pennant with 7 runs to 2 for Chicago, and there was none in the big overflow crowd to say that they had not won it fairly and squarely.

Five games were played, and the eastern youngsters took four of them by out-batting, out-fielding and out-rushing the veteran Chicagoans. They "got the jump" at the start and although Chicago punctured their progress with a defeat Saturday, it really did not change the situation.

The performance of Coombs' pitching and winning three of a five-game series is unique. He had but one day's rest between the second and third games, but three days intervened between the third contest and yesterday's exhibition. He had better control yesterday than in the previous contests and moleled the opposing batters when hits meant runs. Brown pitched excellent ball, except in the disastrous eighth, and the holocaust of that inning was by no means entirely his fault.

The day was bright and the weather of the Indian summer variety. Ground rules, as usual, were necessary. Philadelphia took the lead at the outset, when Hartsel, who went to left field while Lord played center in place of Strunk, singled. The Philadelphians present cheered, for that was exactly the reason that Topsy was played instead of Strunk. He stole second while Lord was striking out, and brought in the first run when Collins hit to center for one base. Brown struck out Lord and Davis in this inning.

Coombs Pulled Himself Out.

Chicago came back in the second when Chance doubled to left, took third on a sacrifice and scored when Steinfeldt delivered a belated hit.

In the third and fourth stanzas the Philadelphians were not threatening, but Coombs did some stellar pitching to save himself from trouble in Chicago's half of the fourth. Two hits and a pass had filled the bases, with one out, but the young Philadelphian, settling to his work, fanned the always to be feared Tinker and Archer.

The easterners assumed the lead in the fifth and were never headed thereafter. Steinfeldt's fumble gave Murphy a life at first. Barry sacrificed and Lapp, who donned the catcher's mit in place of Thomas, sent him home with a single.

First base on balls—Off Coombs 1 (Hofman); off Brown 3 (Davis, Barry, Lord). Umpires—O'Day behind the plate, Sheridan on bases, Connelly in right field, Rigler in left field.

Coombs tightened up in the ninth, Steinfeldt and Tinker hoisted to Lord. Archer made his first hit, but was forced at second for the last out of the series, when Kling, who batted for Brown, sent an easy grounder to Barry.

Chicago's failure in the series can be laid to one cause—the weakness of the pitchers. The club has maintained its place in the National league race by getting an odd run or two in small-score games. In the

Of this 60 per cent, or $47,443.15, goes to the winners, and $31,628.77 to the losers. As there are 23 players on each team eligible to participate, each of the Philadelphians is entitled to $2,062, and each Chicagoan to $1,375.

The players shared in yesterday's receipts by courtesy of the management of the two clubs, who conceded that if the receipts should be larger than those of any previous day the smallest receipts should be considered as accruing to the fifth game and the Sunday receipts accredited to the fourth contest, the last in which the players held a financial share.

The total receipts for the series were $173,980. The two clubs get $38,755 each, while $17,390 goes to the national commission. The total paid attendance was 125,219 persons.

MONEY MARKET IS EASY.

New York, Oct. 24.—Recent activity on the Stock Exchange has been in refreshing contrast with the stagnation of the last few months. The better undertone which was intimated in these advices as early as September 10 has at last crystallized into an active demand for stocks at advancing prices. As usual, the initiative who recognized changed conditions, and each day the buying movement widened with a resultant advance of several points in all the leading shares.

The most important single element of improvement was the positive assurance of a bumper corn crop. The value of a good harvest is much more highly appreciated in the West than here. As a result of the big corn yield, our Western farmers and merchants have each put on a spirit of renewed confidence, so that already the business outlook throughout the great corn belt is showing real improvement. Pessimism, never so deep in the West as in the East, is now rapidly disappearing; for the farmers will be able to meet their obligations, and land speculation has received a wholesome quietus through the timely efforts exerted by interior bankers. Incoming advices from the West are all of a much more favorable nature than a few weeks ago. Corn is lower in price than last year, but this fact will be offset by farmers feeding more corn to cattle. As the latter are bringing high prices, it will prove more profitable to turn corn into meat than into any other marketable product.

Corn and Politics.
While western sentiment has been influenced by the corn crop, eastern opinion has been conspicuously affected by political developments. These are clearly favorable. Republican losses may be expected, it is true, but they are regarded with equanimity, and even with gladness in some quarters as likely to impose a check upon abuses which are apt to creep in with too long political innings. Local issues in this state are largely personal. So far as national issues are concerned, these appear to chiefly center upon the tariff. President Taft's idea, however, for a non-partisan commission, aiming to deal with the tariff one schedule at a time, has allayed much of the anxiety in this quarter. Among other favorable political indications are the moderating of public hostility to corporations; the belief that the supreme court will not destroy property rights, and the expectation that the railroads will secure reasonable treatment in their request for advanced rates. All of these considerations have combined to stimulate a revival of confidence in security markets. A somewhat better demand for bonds has also recently developed. This is partly an indication of increased confidence, is partly due to accumulation of funds seeking investment and partly to a realization of the fact that bonds are really not endangered by any probable action which the interstate commerce commission may take on the rate situation. President McCrea's thoroughly sound and temperate argument in favor of better rates created a strong impression; not only in investment circles, but also among shippers who are fighting all advances, among political leaders at Washington and among the petty politicians who have been ignorantly assuming that clubbing the railroads was good for vote-making. Everything now indicates that the railroad problem will be solved along lines that recognize rights of both railroads and shippers, and that justice will be dealt out as evenly as possible to each and every interest.

Our foreign trade is showing a very remarkable and satisfactory change towards more normal conditions. In September our exports were valued at nearly $169,000,000. This was nearly $15,000,000 in excess of last year, and was probably the heaviest September on record. The increase was partly due to heavy cotton shipments. Imports during the same month amounted to only $17,000,000, a decrease of nearly $4,000,000 compared with last year. The net result for the month was an excess of exports of $14,000,000, compared with $33,000,000 in 1909 and nearly $41,000,000 in 1908. This change in the tendency of our foreign trade is wholesome and significant. For a long period, owing chiefly to the high level of prices here, the tendency has been for imports to increase and exports to diminish; thus creating a surplus of imports instead of exports as usual. It is quite possible to have a satisfactory foreign trade in which imports exceed equal exports, for all foreign trade in the final analysis is larger, and cannot be continued unless mutually profitable. But the United States has always been an export country, owing to its surplus of agricultural products. With the growth of population it is certain we shall gradually change in this respect, and if we are to continue imports from abroad, as we must,

It will be necessary for us to prepare to make payments in larger exports conditions which in time will probably be compensated for by manufacturers to themselves. The fear of a local crisis which hung over this market all summer has not entirely disappeared. General business continues quiet, and it will be some weeks, if not several months, before the full effects of a good harvest display themselves, especially as the process of readjustment to new conditions is not entirely completed.

After the elections it would not be surprising if a moderate resumption of activity was to occur. The improvement in the security markets will undoubtedly act as a stimulant; and the stock market it should be remembered has a habit of discounting such recuperations in advance. It is doubtful if the rise in securities has yet reached its culmination, but after the recent rapid advance to be followed later on by another upturn, provided the present leaders retain control.

Daily Thought.

You will find it less easy to unroot faults than to choke them by gaining virtues.—Ruskin.

When we look at the pictures of Dr. Crippen, we wonder at the fascination some men have for women.

We have seen many yellow papers, but we never before saw such a frank combination as the Lyon County Herald published this week on yellow paper.

According to a poll of the Tennessee press taken by the News-Seminar, of Memphis, of the 84 Democratic papers in the state 38 are only supporting Taylor, 12 are supporting nobody; and 34 are supporting Hooper, who is being supported by a total of 75 papers.

The New York World declares newspaper control by the government will not be established if the Panama Canal suit is sustained. As we remember, the New York World in that story made allegations, directly charging prominent individuals with criminal conspiracy to make personal profit out of the Panama deal with France.

PERSONAL JOURNALISM.

The third district congressional race has reached the point of personalities, at least, among Bowling Green newspapers, and Ed Leigh's Messenger said Saturday:

"Gentlemen of the Democratic campaign committee, come clean now. We had innocently supposed that the letter published by The Messenger from a farmer and asking R. Y. Thomas a series of questions was a spontaneous outburst. But according to the News, the letter was bandied about Democratic headquarters for some time and finally ordered sent to the post office. Farmers who write letters to congressmen don't usually send them by way of Democratic headquarters, but through the post office. As the News says, the supreme question of the hour, overshadowing the tariff and last week's grocery bill is this, 'Who lied?'—Third District Review.

"Mr. Scott has known the editor of the Messenger much longer than he has known the editor of the News, and he knows that the editor of the Messenger would never violate the ethics of the profession. The editor of the Messenger told an absolutely straight story about the Donaldson letter, as Mr. Scott could have found out upon even the slightest investigation. If, therefore, he is the man that he has the right to be by birth and education he will publish the truth about this matter in his next issue."

MR. LEAVITT'S MIRACLE.

Whether or not Mr. W. H. Leavitt himself originated that story of the attempted rape of "The Last Supper", which appeared in the News-Democrat Saturday morning, and whether or not he did, indeed, initiate the communication, which the News-Democrat published Sunday morning, we have no means of knowing. We only know that after reading the rot Saturday morning, we paid no attention to it, further than to make fun of it, assuming that someone had been slipped a piece of money for it, and that someone had gullied the News-Democrat. Fake.

and a poor one at that, was written all over the face of it.

But about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon Mr. Leavitt, hatless and breathless, came into The Evening Sun office, in company, it is true, with Arthur Bailey, a newspaper man, but one who has nothing to do with The Evening Sun. Mr. Leavitt came in primarily to see the News-Democrat story, professing ignorance of it, save that he had received a telegram from a New York paper concerning it, and had denied the story.

In the presence of three witnesses Mr. Leavitt made the denial which was published in The Evening Sun, and we deem it no breach of confidence to add that he said on the night, when he is supposed to have made his occult demonstration in bed, he was dining out, a statement which we have since taken the pains to verify as a historical fact.

Mr. Leavitt said more: he called the article "a species of yellow journalism", and vowed Mr. Hearst's papers couldn't have done worse. He said he had never talked with a News-Democrat reporter about the matter; that the whole story was absurd and untrue and that no such thing ever occurred to his personal knowledge.

When we published the denial we supposed we were doing Mr. Leavitt a good turn. We have heard since that representatives of the News-Democrat, and former County Judge R. T. Lightfoot corralled Mr. Leavitt in the Three Links building Saturday night, and his signed statement in the News-Democrat Sunday morning may have been the product of that interesting interview—and, then, it may not.

As the matter stands, if that communication, obtained in whatever manner one may imagine, is to be accepted, then Mr. Leavitt may be assumed to have heard "the story read over the telephone before the same was published", and thereby to give the sanction of inspiration and revelation to every syllable, dot and punctuation mark in it.

A fake story, like murder, can generally be detected by the efforts of the guilty parties to cover up their trail. A story founded on fact requires no corroborative evidence. This Leavitt story contains as complete, though crudely developed plot, as that employed to give verisimilitude to the greatest melodrama.

Let us introduce our hero, Mr. W. H. Leavitt, the painter of "The Last Supper." He is asleep in bed—for the moment that he was in reality dining out that night.

"All through the evening", he says, "I had a feeling of depression, just as though I were alone in a lower storm."

(Business with thunder machine, L I E.)

"I awoke," says he, "with a start, I could not shake off the premonition."

Can we not infer from the story, a prologue, in which the artist is similarly awakened from a deep sleep by some mysterious influence, and going to his studio in the Latin quarter (or do they sleep in 'em?) his feverish hand under the guidance of the afflatus daubs the colors on the canvas, and in the morning he awakes and finds the great masterpiece finished in every detail? This man has communication with the supernatural. But let us hasten on. The plot thickens.

The nearer I approached the building, "our hero continues. "The more convincing became my sensation that something was amiss."

(Here is a phenomenon, which would interest the society for physical research).

Then the narrator takes the stage for a minute to describe the hero.

"Here Mr. Leavitt's voice shook with emotion as he recalled the narrow escape of his painting from total destruction."

(We are to infer that the recital over the telephone by the author of the story so moved Mr. Leavitt's easily excited imagination, that his voice "shook with emotion." Perhaps, shook the wire).

Enter the villain—Oh, not a man really, truly villain; merely a man driven mad by the preaching of Dr. R. A. Torrey; for Mr. Leavitt is quoted as saying it was "someone temporarily deranged by the series of revival services." And you must remember that this man Leavitt deals in the occult, and the same vision that led him to the scene, could easily have revealed to him the character of the person whom he had to face.

He reaches the building and, what does he see?

"There, WITH ONE HAND HOLDING A KNIFE IN POSITION TO DESCEND ON THE PAINTING, stood a man."

But again miraculous intervention saves the picture; for it is recorded "I was unable to speak FOR SEVERAL MINUTES."

Climate Failed—Medicine Cured.

It has been abundantly shown that rest, fresh air, and good food, do help many persons suffering from tuberculosis. It must be admitted that the disease is seldom more than "arrested." Something more is needed.

Mr. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine made for the cure of Tuberculosis. It has cured this disease again and again. Often these cures have been effected where the ordinary treatment had failed. Intelligent care was taken of the patient, where money was scarce; good food and good cooking unusual—yet cures resulted. Now we again urge that Eckman's Alternative should be used in every case of Tuberculosis, in addition to good, nourishing food, and fresh air, when all else fails.

The facts—the evidence of cures that have been made—are interesting reading. A remarkable cure follows:—Weldon, Ill. Gentlemen: Through Eckman's Alternative, I have been able to cure a very grave case of tuberculosis. My lungs became very much emaciated. My physician informed me that I must go to Colorado as quickly as possible. I left on June 2nd, very feeble. After being there two weeks, my physician informed me that nothing could be done as my case was hopeless. There was a man here weighing 163 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive.

On the 14th of July I began taking Eckman's Alternative remedy for Consumption, it being very highly recommended. To-day I weigh 115 pounds, and am stout and well. I am now in good health and am able to work.

On December 14, 1904, I was taken with typhoid pneumonia. My lungs became very much affected. After a month in bed, I was removed and sent to Colorado as quickly as possible. OUTWEIGHED BUT NOT OUTCLASSED

PADUCAH HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED

ED SATURDAY.

Hopkinsville High Has Some New Pupils Who Are Very Heavy.

Outweigher, the Paducah High school football players went down in defeat before the Hopkinsville High school team Saturday afternoon at Hopkinsville after putting up a very plucky fight. Almost throughout the entire game the light High school line withheld the heavy plunges of the opponents. Exhausted and weakened in the final quarter, the Paducah players were unable to stop the heavy rushes, and the score was piled up from 5 to 28 to 0.

The Paducah players, bruised and battered from the strenuous battle, returned yesterday afternoon, and were not pleased with the treatment during the game. The hospitality of the citizens was excellent, but several players who entered school only a few days ago for the football season, said they had participated in the game. Prof. Hugh Craig was umpire, and he said not a penalty he called was enforced, and he was hardly recognized as an official. The Hopkinsville team averaged 147.1 pounds in weight, while the Paducah players averaged 141. Iley Browning, the right tackle, was knocked out, and played the entire last quarter pluckily without regaining his normal condition. Joe Harth, King, Ward Browning, Jones, were also knocked out, but each revived and showed his grit by finishing the game.

Started Badly.

The Paducah boys started off badly when Hopkinsville kicked off, and Paducah fumbled. By hard work the Hopkinsville players finally scored a touchdown, but failed at goal. At the end of the first half not another score was made, and both teams battled strenuously. In the third quarter the Paducah lads failed to score although the ball was shoved near the goal line when it was lost on a fumble. In the final quarter Hopkinsville players plunged through the line for four touchdowns while three goals were kicked.

The work of the Paducah line was the feature as they withheld gains until the final quarter. Only at intervals did the Paducah ends play good, while the back field failed to come up to form. The Paducah lads have cancelled the game next Saturday with the town team as they are not in condition, and will rest up for Madisonville.

The line-up and weights of the players is:

The Trial By Rice.

They have peculiar methods of trying suspects in Bengal. One of these is called "trial by rice." Every person suspected was ordered to be present, and all turned up. First the people were made to sit in a semi-circle and a "plate" (a square of plantain leaf) was set before each.

Then a priest walked up and down, chanting and scattering flowers.

This ceremony over one of the clerks went to each man and gave him some raw rice and told him to chew it to pulp. After about ten minutes they were told to stop and eject it into the plantain leaf. All did so easily with the exception of three men. One of these three promptly commenced to cry and beg for mercy, confessing everything and saying that another of the three was the chief instigator. It is a curious fact that fear, arising from an evil conscience, prevents saliva coming to the mouth, with the result described.—London Globe.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

Donovan, Frank M. Fisher, John J. Dorian, Con Ward, John Doherty and Captain M. Williams.

Three masses will be held at the church next Sunday. The first will be at 6 o'clock, the second mass at 7 o'clock and the third mass at 9:30 o'clock. The first communion will be given at the 7 o'clock mass and immediately after the 9:30 o'clock mass the sacrament confirmation will be administered by Bishop O'Donaghue.

In the afternoon Bishop O'Donaghue will be at the St. John's Catholic church in the county. The class for confirmation this year is composed of about 150 members.

Services at Temple Israel. Special services of the Feast of Conclusion will be held at Temple Israel this evening at 7:30 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 10.

Eight Additions. There were eight additions to the First Baptist church yesterday, six for baptism at the morning service and two by letter at the evening service. Mr. Howard Kimsey, baritone soloist with Dr. Torrey, sang "God's Call" in an impressive manner in the morning and made a most favorable impression. Last night the Rev. Dodd preached on "Faith." Audiences at both services were large. Owing to the baptistry being out of order the baptismal services were postponed until next Sunday.

Equipment for Religious Service. "Equipment for Religious Service" was the subject of an excellent sermon delivered at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday by the Rev. William S. Jacoby, co-worker of Dr. Torrey. The pastor, the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, was present and able to conduct the services and a large audience was present. Mr. William McEwan, tenor with Dr. Torrey sang sweetly, "When Face to Face I Shall Meet Him."

The Bible class yesterday morning was attended by 65 members. There were no evening services. The Rev. Sullivan requested all of the stewards of the church to meet him at 6:45 o'clock this evening in the church parlors.

Fountain Avenue. The Rev. G. W. Banks, pastor of the Fountain Avenue Methodist church, filled his pulpit yesterday morning and a large congregation was present. There were no evening services.

First Presbyterian. Dr. H. W. Burwell preached yesterday morning at the First Presbyterian church from the text, "How Long Shall Ye Between Two Opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him; but if Baal, follow him."—I. King, xviii, 21.

His subject was "Decide Now." It was ringing appeal against indifference on the part of professedly believing people. There were two additions to the church. Miss Nellie Henneberger sang a beautiful solo for the offertory.

The Sunday school hour was occupied by Mr. William Jacoby, whose address laid practically the entire Sunday school under conviction of sin, and the short prayer service, with those who arose at his invitation, was one of the most impressive and stirring features of the revival month.

Four Additions. There were four additions to the First Christian church yesterday morning, three by confession and one by letter. The pastor, the Rev. W. A. Flite, gave a report of the National Convention of the Christian church, which met recently in Topeka, Kan. Mr. Walter Clark sang a solo. There were no evening services.

At Tenth Street. At the Tenth Street Christian church yesterday morning Miss Mary Moody Parker spoke on the subject of "A Full Surrender to Christ." After the service several renewed their faith in Christ. A large congregation was present to hear Miss Parker while in the evening there were no services owing to the Torrey.

At German Evangelical. The usual services were conducted at the German Unity Evangelical church on South Fifth street yesterday by the pastor, the Rev. H. M. Wiesecke. The class for instruction in confirmation will begin at 4

QUIT CALOMEL!

THOUSANDS ARE TURNING FROM THIS DANGEROUS DRUG.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute Is Olive Tablets for the Liver.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Portsmouth, Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials, including olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers. His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experimenting with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablet.

The results of fifteen years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

All druggists sell them in neat vest pocket sizes at 10¢ and 25¢.

Services at Temple Israel. Special services of the Feast of Conclusion will be held at Temple Israel this evening at 7:30 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 10.

North Twelfth Street. One addition to the North Twelfth Street Baptist church was baptised at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Ohio river at the foot of Broadway by the pastor, the Rev. J. R. Clark. He filled his pulpit yesterday morning and evening, having returned from Milburn, Ky., where he closed a successful revival.

Kentucky Avenue.

At the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday morning the Rev. Landis preached on the subject of "Friendship Brings Personal Responsibility," and told of Paul's letter to Philemon. A good crowd was present. There were no evening services.

Willing to Forgive.

"Why We Should Be Willing to Forgive" was the subject of the Rev. William Grother's sermon last evening at the German Lutheran church on South Fourth street. Yesterday morning he preached at St. Matthews' church in the county, speaking in the German language. The Lutheran league will meet at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the church.

"Colonial Heights"

The Suburb De Luxe of Paducah

We are glad to announce to the home building and investment public of the city of Paducah that the high and beautiful tract of land—about 30 acres—lying on and to the north of Jefferson street and on to the west of Thirty-first street, which we have christened

"Colonial Heights"

Has been divided into large and attractive building lots, or home sites, which are now offered for sale at low prices and on most attractive terms. The people of Paducah have hitherto never been afforded the opportunity of acquiring such high and healthy home sites in the path of the city's best growth; convenient to street car service and carrying so full a quota of city advantages and improvements.

Improvements

Monroe, Madison and Harrison Streets are now being extended through the property. Graded and cement sidewalks laid. The installation of a water system connected with the city supply, a complete and up-to-date sewerage system, and the graveling of the streets will follow in rapid succession. We give ourselves Twelve (12) months in which to perfect these improvements, but have determined to complete them in the next few months, so that they will be ready for the earliest and smartest builder.

Restrictions

The Minimum Cost of houses will be $1,500 to $2,500, according to location, the great majority of the houses having a Minimum limit of $2,000. This means a much better class of houses than these Minimum prices would indicate, as the builder who desires a much more expensive residence can rest assured that his property will be protected from the effect of unsightly and depreciating shacks. NO LIQUORS, NO NEGROES, AN ESTABLISHED BUILDING LINE and other wholesome restrictions for the benefit and protection of the lot buyers and looking to the making of "COLONIAL HEIGHTS" a strictly high-class residential section for the best people of Paducah.

The value of these lots have been so conservatively fixed that they will at once appeal to the home builder and to the shrewd investor as well.

Notwithstanding our City's most promising future and the unmistakable evidences that she is about to enter upon an era of unprecedented growth and prosperity, we make no boom prices, but such as will surely give to the lot buyer the lion's share of the profit in the transaction. But to realize it, he should buy NOW and not wait until ground floor prices are NO LONGER OBTAINABLE.

THIS PROPERTY IS ENTIRELY UNINCUMBERED AND TITLES ARE PERFECT.

Terms

Only $20 to $30 cash and the balance in 48 equal monthly payments, and no interest whatever on deferred payments, and no taxes for Four (4) years.

These terms are so easy that almost any person of moderate means or salary can buy a home site or secure an investment safer than a savings bank—one that will continue to grow when fires consume and banks fail.

Now is the time to buy Paducah DIRT and he who wisely buys FIRST will reap the greatest reward.

Announcements

We have secured the services of Messrs. Zachary & Raymond, men of long and successful experience in the development and sale of high-class suburban properties, and bespeak, for them, a cordial reception by the business public. You will find it both pleasant and profitable to do business with them. These lots will sell rapidly and, if interested, make your selections AT ONCE. Delays are dangerous.

TORREY'S SERMON

ward like the ordinary men and women to an "anxious seat." Something in him said, "It will never do in the world. You occupy the most exalted position in New York state; you are the chief justice of the court of appeals; it would never do in the world for you to walk down in front, and seek salvation kneeling down at the 'anxious seat.'" He sat there thinking for a while; then he said to himself, "Why not? I am convinced of the truth of that man's position. I know my duty; why should I not do it like any other man?" He got up from his place in the gallery, and went down the stairway, and came up the stairs back of where Mr. Finney was preaching, and Mr. Finney, in the midst of his sermon felt some one pulling on the skirts of his coat. He turned around, and there stood the chief justice of the court of appeals of New York state. He asked, "What is it?" The chief justice replied, "Mr. Finney, if you will call for people to come to the 'anxious seat,' I will come." Mr. Finney stopped his sermon and said, "The chief justice of the court of appeals of New York state says if I will call for anxious ones to come to the 'anxious seat,' he will come. I call for anxious ones now"; and the chief justice of the court of appeals went down and took his seat on the "anxious seat," and almost every lawyer and barrister in Rochester was converted, and it is said 100,000 people were converted in twelve months in that district.

Laides and gentlemen, there are some of you here tonight who, if you had the courage of your convictions and came to Christ, not secretly as some of you want to, but walked right out and took your seat down here in front when I called you to do it. It would shake Paducah. Are you men enough to do it? Are you women enough to do it? Your influence may not be as great as that, but all of you have an influence. Will you exert it for Jesus Christ when the time comes tonight?

3. In the third place, every one should publicly confess Christ before the world, because it is the only way to obtain the fullness of blessing that there is in Jesus Christ. In Matthew x. 32, 33, are the words of the Master Himself: "Whosoever shall confess Me before men, him against a lamp-post and shouting, and when he asked you what was the matter, you said you were so happy you could not stand up. Is that so?" He said, "It was literally true. Ten minutes after I left you last night, such joy came over my soul that literally I had to lean against the lamp-post and shout for joy."

I don't know if it will affect you just that way; it never did me; but I will guarantee one thing—that if you will accept Jesus Christ with all your heart and surrender your whole life to Him, and His control, and publicly confess Him before the world, God will send His Holy Spirit into your heart, filling it with a joy that you never knew before.

4. In the fourth place, every man and woman should confess Christ, because it is the only way to be saved. In Romans x. 9 and 10 we read: "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." People say to me in some places where we go, "I don't believe in this standing up and confessing;" but I don't care what you believe; the question is, "What does God say?" And God says, "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." There are a great many people who will tell you if a man or woman believe in Christ in the secrecy of their own hearts they need never say anything about it, for God sees the heart. He does see your heart, and if you do not confess Christ, He sees you have not got any real faith. You say, "Is not a man saved by faith?" Yes, but by real faith, and real faith always leads to mouth confession. We read in the very next verse of this chapter: Romans x. 11: "Whoso believeth on Him shall not be ashamed." If you are ashamed to confess Him you do not believe on Him. A faith that does not lead to confession will never lead to heaven. There will be no sneaks and cowards in heaven. Jesus Christ says in Mark viii. 28: "Whoso shall be ashamed of Me and of My words, of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when He cometh in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

5. Once more, every man and woman should confess Christ for common decency's sake and selfrespect's sake. When you and I stop to think what Christ has done for us; how He left heaven with all its glory and came down to earth with all its shame; how He was scourged and crowned with thorns; how He bore shame and reproach; how He was spat upon and buffeted and nailed to the cross for you and me; how, although He was rich, yet for our sake He became poor, that we through His poverty might become rich; how, though being in the form of God, He thought it not a thing to be grasped to be equal to God, but humbled Himself and took upon Himself the form of a servant, and was obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross; how He was wounded for our transgressions, and bruised for our iniquities—if men and women, knowing that, you will not confess Jesus Christ because of the fear of man, or fear of loss in business, or fear of loss of caste in society, then you are a coward, a poltroon, an ingrate of the basest and blackest kind. You cannot get around it; you know it is God's truth. I cannot see how any intelligent man or woman can bear in mind what Jesus has done for them, and then not confess Him, and still retain their self-respect.

We have some things we are proud of in America, and some things we are ashamed of. One of the things we are proud of in America is this, that all boys and girls in America can get a university education; that the son of the farmer and the day laborer and the washerwoman can get a university education as well as the child of the millionaire. Any boy or girl that is worth educating can go through all degrees of learning in America. Since I have been in Chicago, the grandson of a man who used to work for us at home as our gardener, when I was a boy, has been the mayor of the city of Chicago and the son of a woman who used to do the cooking in our kitchen has occupied another high position in the city. I rejoice in it; it is one of the things that make me glad to be an American. In North Carolina, one of the poorer states—poor financially but rich in men—there was a farmer who had a bright boy. He had a poor farm, but he said, "My boy is going to get just as good an opportunity as a millionaire's son;" and that poor farmer worked and scraped until he was able to send that boy to the State university. The boy did well, and his letters home delighted his father's and mother's hearts, and they felt well paid for all their sacrifice. But after awhile the father's heart grew lonely, and he said to his wife, "Mother, I cannot stand it any longer; I just must see the boy." It was a long way from the farm to the university, and he loaded his wagon and started on his long drive, and as he drew near to the town he said to himself: "Well, won't the boy be surprised? He don't know I'm coming. Won't he be delighted to see his old father?" He whipped up the old team and hurried on, and entered the town. He was driving up the hill to the college, and as he went, whom should he see coming down but his boy with some gay college companions. The old man was driving slowly, for it was up hill, but when he saw the boy he jumped out and rushed up to him and said, "Oh, my boy, my son!" The son was ashamed of his poor father, and he straightened himself up and said, "There must be some mistake, sir; you are not my father. I don't know you." I am told—I don't know it to be positively true—but I am told that father turned around with a broken heart and went home to die. I can well believe it. It would break my heart for my boy to treat me that way.

Men and women, what do you say to a boy like that? I say he ought to be horsewhipped. I say he was an infamous ingrate. But I want to say that he was not so infamously ungrateful as you men and women in this hall tonight, who know that Jesus Christ poured out His life unto death on the Cross of Calvary, and who are so mean and contemptible and cowardly that you won't stand up and confess Him.

I am not going to stop with that story. It is too dark. I am going to tell you another—and thank God it is true—of our home land. A poor woman in one of our towns, who had to work for her living, for she was a widow—she took in washing. I think—had a boy, and he was a bright boy and proved a bright man. I think some of you have heard him. She sent her boy to school. He went through the schools, did well, came out at the very top of his class, the highest position, and took a gold medal for special excellence in study. The day he was to graduate he said to his mother: "You know, I graduate today, mother." She said, "Yes, I know." "Well, get ready," he said, "It is time to get off to the church"—where the graduating exercises were to be held. "Oh, my boy, I cannot go up there," she said; "I haven't anything fit to wear. Why, all the finest people in the town will be there. You would be ashamed of me if I went." "Ashamed of you, mother?" he said, "never! I owe all I have in the world to you. What is more, mother, I cannot graduate unless you do go; and I won't!" And he helped his mother to get ready, and pinned the old faded shawl around her, and made it look as good as possible, and put on her plain old bonnet, and took her on his arm, and walked down the main street with the plain old mother on his arm to the church. When they got there, he took her up the center aisle, and sat her among the finest people in town. When the time came, he went up to deliver his valedictory address and to receive the gold medal, amid the applause of his companions; and when he had received it he walked straight down to where his mother sat, and pinned it on her old faded shawl, and said, "Mother, that belongs to you; you earned it."

That is a boy worth having. Now ladies and gentlemen, I want to ask a question: Do you mean tonight is like that rascally, scoundrelly in grade, that was ashamed of his old father and broke his heart, and be ashamed of that glorious Christ that died for you; or will you be like the other boy, and, knowing that you owe everything to Jesus Christ, stand up and confess Him tonight, and pin all your honors where they belong, on Jesus Christ!
